Partnership formed between Delta Phi Chi Military Sorority Inc. and HazingPrevention.Org

December 21, 2017 (El Paso, TX) –

Delta Phi Chi Military Sorority Inc. and HazingPrevention.Org (HPO), who share a mission to prevent hazing and educate others to be empowered to prevent hazing, have joined together in a mutually beneficial partnership agreement, beginning in 2018. 'HazingPrevention.Org continues to be a leader in hazing prevention education, starting in middle school and extending through high school, higher education, and the military', said Emily Pualwan, Executive Director of HazingPrevention.Org, 'the mission of Delta Phi Chi and that of our nonprofit organization complement each other, and we look forward to a fruitful partnership in 2018'.

Jennifer Berry, Grand President, added 'Delta Phi Chi's intent is to zone in on the stigma of hazing amongst military sororities/fraternities. As you know, military sororities/fraternities have become VERY prominent in the Greek community, over the past 6 years, and is forecasted to continue steady growth over the years to come. As the Grand President of Delta Phi Chi, I believe that it's imperative that we take an aggressive approach to address this stigma and take steps to mitigate the risks, via awareness and education, BEFORE it tarnish the Military Sorority/Fraternity images.'

This is the second military Greek organization that HazingPrevention.Org has signed partnership agreements with in recent months, and the intent is to be able to serve all Military Greek organizations in the coming years. The two organizations will promote messaging and education in their respective publications, at local events, and in social media campaigns and community service projects, and work together to develop material relevant to Delta Phi Chi members. They will also showcase HazingPrevention.Org and prevention messaging at Delta Phi Chi annual Grand Conclave held each year in August.
